Has Bess far to go to school, ?

Yes, her mother has to go with her.

Tom and Sam puff and run
and pass Bess and her mother.

Sam's cuff hit the milk box
and some milk was upset.

Tom ran off. 'please, Miss,
may I have a rag
to mop up the milk ? '

Sam, Sam, what a mess !

play they day Saturday

Nell and Bob had come to the mill in the dell,
to play with Sam and Jill.

Sam's father was ill, so Sam
had to show Bob the mill.

They help the men in the mill
to fill the bags.

Jill and Nell play with a doll.
They say it is not well.
At the end of the morning,
Nell and Bob set off
for dinner.

What fun they had !

They will come to play
with Sam and Jill
on Saturday.

'Will you run with me
to the top of the big hill?'
said Bob to Sam and Will.

'Yes,' said Sam. 'If we go
to the top of the big hill,
we can see the sea.'

Sam ran best ; he can run fast.
Will and Bob had to stop
for a rest.

'Look !' said Will.

'See that gull go into its nest.'

They could just see the gull,
but they did not see the nest
for the mist.

'I must not stop,' said Bob at last. 'I must go in to do my lessons for school.'
